

This is her 12th year with AACPS. She started at Annapolis High School in 1999 and then came to Annapolis Elementary School in 2005. She lives in Annapolis with her husband Gary and their two dogs, Brandy and Benelli (Hungarian Vizslas). She has two grown children Bryan and Jen and a three year old grandson Hunter. She enjoys spending time with her grandson, her family and friends. She loves to play fetch with her dogs, sew, do stain glass, floral arranging and other crafts. Her husband built her a studio for all her craft projects. She likes to go out there and spend time being creative. She and her family have all gone through the public school system in Anne Arundel County.
