

March 12, 2020, 4-6 PM, Carver Center
Q&A for Aspiring Leaders
Mount St. Mary's University and AACPS

Lead in the 21st Century

The Master of Education in Instructional Leadership begins in June, 2020. Courses are a combination of face-to-face, blended, and online. Instructors are an effective combination of Mount professors and AACPS administrators.

This program is for educators who are seeking administrative certification in order to pursue leadership roles. The 36-credit hour program emphasizes current trends in school organization and management, integration of technology, and research based principles of leadership.

"The Instructional Leadership program at the Mount prepares leaders who value deeper learning and problem solving. Our candidates embrace an innovative mindset focused on positively impacting teaching and learning."

-Barbara Marinak, Dean, School of Education

Major Requirements (36 credits total)

- MEDUC 501: Current Trends in Education
- MEDUC 699: Equity, Social Justice & Leadership
- MEDUC 621: Principles of School Leadership and Administration
- MEDUC 622: Strategic Planning and Leadership
- MEDUC 623: Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment
- MEDUC 624: Improving Instruction through Supervision
- MEDUC 625: Managing School Finances
- MEDUC 626: Educational Policy and School Law
- MEDUC 628: Leadership Practicum I
- MEDUC 629: Leadership Practicum II
- MEDUC 630: Fundamentals of Educational Research
- MEDUC 631: Graduate Research Capstone

Contact

Dr. Barbara Marinak
Dean, School of Education
marinak@msmary.edu

Learn more at msmary.edu/Education