THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND LAW SUMMER INSTITUTE provides information on educational and career opportunities available to high school students. Programs include Management, Accounting, Entrepreneurship, Transportation Logistics, Cargo Security, Homeland Security Criminal Justice, and Legal Studies.

Through discussions, presentations, breakout sessions, and engaged learning activities, participants learn about academic and career pathways in the exciting fields mentioned above. Participants use what they learn in the Summer Institute to develop learning activities, lesson plans and overlays for use in their classrooms.

Preregistration is required through AACPS. A Zoom link with password will be sent to all participants the week of the Institute.

For information contact Steve Berry at sberry1@aacc.edu or 410-777-2363.
