Inclement Weather and Emergency School Closings			Religious Observances
Make-up Days Three make-up days are included at the end of the school year. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Any additional days needed will be added to the June closing date. Unused make-up days shall be deducted from the June closing date. 			Tests & Examinations AACPS tests and examinations (including mandated tests and assessments) shall not be scheduled on any of the religious observances noted in this calendar. Tests and examinations for a grade will not be administered on the school day following any of the religious observances noted in this calendar, unless the observance concludes on a Friday or Saturday night. Similarly, AACPS tests and examinations (including mandated tests and assessments) for Evening High School students shall also not be scheduled on the evening before or the day of evening of a religious observance.
End of Marking Periods <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If emergency closings affect the end of any marking period, the marking period will be extended so that both early dismissal days occur at the end of the marking period. This applies to all schools. There must be one non-student day between the second and third marking periods. 			School Sponsored Activities For Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Eid-al-Fitr, and Eid al-Adha, no athletics or other school-sponsored extracurricular activities will take place after sundown on the day before the observance or before sundown on the first day of a multi-day religious observance.
Student Absences Students absent from school due to a religious observance noted on this calendar will be allowed the option to make up work missed due to that absence. Such absence shall not affect a student's eligibility for perfect attendance recognition.
