

AVID Tutors Wanted!

Gain valuable experience working with students!

What is AVID?

Corkran Middle School is an AVID National Demonstration School. AVID is an accelerated academic program designed to provide academic support to students “in the middle” to prepare them for eligibility to four-year colleges and universities. One of the key components of the AVID program is in-class high level tutorial sessions. More information about AVID is available at avid.org.

When: During the school day; Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and/or Thursdays

Where: Corkran Middle School, Glen Burnie MD

Pay: $9.25/hour

For application information or if you would like more information, please contact Alexis Pogonowski at apogonowski@aacps.org.

What Does a Tutorial Facilitator Do?

- Guide a small group of students during the school day as they work through problems from math, science, social studies, English, and World Classical Language classes.
- You are not acting as a typical “tutor.” You are serving as an adult facilitator of the tutorial process.
- AVID teacher will also be in the room and will be able to step in when needed.
- You do not need to be an expert on any subject. Your main goal is ensure students are asking questions, using their textbooks, and each other as resources.
