Jacob CONNORS

Jacob, Time always flies by too fast and each milestone you hit seems to sneak up on us. This one, your graduation, seemed to come so soon. We can remember like it was yesterday you riding your scooter and being the daredevil that you are. Then it was skateboarding. Caring and care, you always wanting to go so fast and now that you are ready to graduate we wish we could slow it all down and maybe, just to be selfish, go backwards and do it all again. We know that is not possible so we will just look forward to all that your future holds and cherish the memories and the pride we feel as you take this next step in life. We love you and are so proud of you.
Love,
Mom & Dad
